Fellow Mopar people:

Yea! We now have a full slate of officers Jerry Morris has stepped up to be secretary...Thank you Jerry. At this months meeting we will be electing the officers, so come and vote or give up your right to complain.

The Bill Heard car show had a good turnout with about 30 Mopars in attendance. There were 4 E-bodies, about 15 B-bodies, 3 or so A-bodies, 1 or 2 C-bodies and the rest were 50's cars, a very good mixture of all things Mopar. A highlight for me for sure was Ronnie Sox and his 68 Hemi Charger. Overall there were 428 cars at the show and they raised like $16K for Tenn. Special Olympics.

The Garage tour has been postponed to Sat., Nov 10th, as too many people had conflicts with the orig. date....We'd like a good turnout for this as the last stop @ Fritz Crombie's includes Lunch, the 1st stop will offer coffee and donuts...both on the club's dime. If you'd like your garage to be included just ask, it's not too late.

Our Nov meeting (Tues, 6th) is back at La Hacienda on G-town Rd. For Dec. We are going to try to have our meeting/X-mas dinner at Macaroni Grill, on the reg. 1st Tues date...stay tuned for details.

Take care and hope to see you at meeting.
